

RUSSELL SCHOOL OF MINISTRY

The Russell School of Ministry at Cincinnati Christian University gives students and other church leaders an outstanding opportunity to expand their leadership education through a series of practical ministry courses.

The inspiration for the program came from the lives and ministries of Bob and Judy Russell. Bob and Judy spent over 40 years in ministry and helped grow Southeast Christian Church, Louisville, Kentucky, to 20,000 people—the largest Christian church in the United States. Bob is also a well-known author, having written 16 books. Retiring from Southeast, one of Bob's main focuses today is to mentor and minister to young preachers. Bob wants to do everything he can to pass on to these men what he's learned during his four decades at Southeast. Bob's seminars include encouragement as well as instruction. The Russell School of Ministry will provide a unique opportunity for interaction with Bob Russell. He wants these students to come away with a great enthusiasm for ministry.

In addition to providing excellent and practical ministry training, through the Russell School of ministry, Cincinnati Christian University has established a scholarship fund for preaching students. The Russell Scholarship Fund will provide excellent scholarship opportunities for future preachers.

Along with Bob, these courses will be taught by experienced and well-known professors and leaders. Bob Russell will be a regular guest lecturer in each class. Students will receive a certificate upon completion of the four one-week modules. The four-module courses may also be used to fulfill course requirements in either the MAR or MDiv degrees.

WHAT A FAMILY!

The Russell family ministry and leadership live on. It began with Charles and Catherine Russell, Conneautville, Pennsylvania. Born to them are ministers and ministry leaders whose lives of influence are too numerous to mention here.

Not only did these sisters and brothers attend CCU, but many of their children and grandchildren have attended or are currently attending CCU.
